

September Newsletter

Welcome to the September 2024 Edition of the CSCNL Newsletter!

As we transition into the vibrant colors of fall, the Community Sector Council Newfoundland and Labrador (CSCNL) is excited to bring you the latest updates and opportunities within our sector. This month, we are thrilled to highlight several key events and initiatives aimed at enhancing well-being and fostering collaboration across our province.

What's New

The poster for the Community Well-Being Fair + A Time for Health event features a collage of images: a group of people at a table, two men in a circular frame, and a pink semi-circle. Text on the poster includes: 'Well-being COMMUNITY FAIR', 'ST. JOHN'S CONVENTION CENTRE', '22 SEPT. 12-5 PM', 'Come find out about programs and services that contribute to overall well-being for all ages!', 'Free & family friendly!', 'For more information: lindseyhynes@cscnl.ca or 709-689-8413', 'www.cscnl.ca', 'A Time for Health', 'Don't miss this special event from 1:00-2:30!', 'A celebration of culture, community & connection.', 'Space is limited. Registration required.', and the CSCNL and Well-Being NL logos.

Community Well-Being Fair + A Time for Health

With Newfoundland and Labrador more focused on well-being than ever, and working to build awareness and inspire action on improving health outcomes and quality of life, organizations like yours play a pivotal role.

To further connect people and organizations dedicated to improving well-being through the social determinants of health, I'm thrilled to invite you to the Community Well-Being Fair + A Time for Health, a partnership between CSC NL, the Cardiovascular & Stroke Provincial Program and Well Being NL.

This event happening Sunday September 22nd will be the official launch of Well Being Week here in our province!

If you'd like to reserve a booth (at no cost!) please express your interest by completing the following form by September 6th and email any questions you may have to

Regional Conversations

Join us in Newfoundland & Labrador
for a Regional Conversation

Gander
September 18th

St. John's
September 19th

Presenting Sponsor

The Community Sector Council Newfoundland and Labrador (CSCNL) is delighted to welcome our friends from Imagine Canada to our province in the coming weeks. This will be the first in a series of conversations co-hosted by Imagine Canada and regional partners taking place in four provinces this fall. Imagine Canada's 2024 co-hosted Regional Conversations are presented by PearTree Canada.

These free events happening in Gander and St. John's are for senior leaders (paid staff and volunteers) from across the non-profit ecosystem to connect, share challenges and opportunities, and strengthen our collective impact. We envision a diverse group of participants representing various sub-sectors, organization types, and sizes, with a focus on creating an inclusive space for a diversity of voices to foster connection, collaboration and positive change within our sector.

Limited seating still available. RSVP deadline extended to Sept 9th

Events

Coffee's On is a Community Sector Council NL initiative under our Community Vitality & Well-Being portfolio. It serves as a networking, information-sharing, and community space for government agencies, community groups, and service providers interested in well-being, poverty reduction and the social determinants of health.

Join us province-wide on September 5th 10am NST on Zoom as Lindsey Hynes from CSCNL hosts a conversation with the Canadian Council on Rehabilitation and Work (CCRW) to talk about their employment services programs across Newfoundland & Labrador.

If you support folks who self-identify with a disability and are currently unemployed, CCRW may be able to provide support in finding their next employment opportunity. Services are provided province wide!

LET'S DRIVE CHANGE TOGETHER!

CSCNL is an independent charity championing social and economic well-being in our province. Since our incorporation in 1977, CSCNL has been a driving force that supports, empowers, and advocates for the Community Sector in Newfoundland and Labrador. As we celebrate nearly 50 years of amplifying the voices of a resilient sector, our role remains steadfast: nurturing volunteerism, bolstering organizational capacity, increasing access to expertise and opportunities, and sharing the invaluable contributions of non-profit and community entities.

As CSCNL embarks on a period of organizational transformation to serve an evolving community sector for the next 50 years, we are searching for volunteer directors to join the Board to help shape our evolving mission and amplify our impact across the province.
